and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

Betty Brown, who took my wife's place in the office, called my attention to the fact that the Lions Club Pancake supper is Friday night, March 17 at 5:30 to 8:00 p.m. and at 7:30 the same evening Rev. Lenard Hartley will preach on "Too Much-Too Soon" as part of his revival service.

I don't know whether this is what he had in mind or not.

Along the line of Rev. Hartley's sermon topic, I was glad to see that the Abilene public schools are slowing down their athletic program in junior high because of the time it takes the boys away from school and their homes.

Since they will have five junior highs in Abilene next year they will be able to carry out a sports program without making so many road trips. They will play Stamford as their only out of town game.

Although the smaller towns have to go out of town for their games I don't believe it is of benefit to anyone to start before the eighth grade. Boys younger than this do not need to be out of town on a school night. During basketball this year our seventh and eighth graders played two games a week—one here and one away.

Some people seem to think that you must start early to have a winning team, but this isn't necessarily so since many schools including Stamford start competition in the eighth grade. And even if this were true how important is winning?

In this month's "Interscholastic League," the publication of the Texas Interscholastic League, Dr. Rhea H. Williams in his column "Postscripts on Athletics" discusses the problems of elementary and junior high sports programs.

In his column he brings out the physical dangers of starting competition too soon.

In regard to a junior high program he says "Junior high school football is sanctioned by many state associations at the present time on a limited basis. A limited football interschool program for eighth and ninth grade students in junior high school can be justified on an educational basis provided it is properly directed. If games are played in six-minute quarters with rules to regulate size and weight of participants, with no more than six games per season and similar safeguards, interschool football on the junior high school level can meet the qualification of educational experiences for the adolescent boy."

With 71 candidates in the race for U. S. Senate to replace Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, it would seem that everyone should find a candidate to his liking.

There has been a lot of talk about finding a way to reduce the number of publicity seekers in the special election races. The best idea that I have seen would be to require that candidates post a $1,000 to $1,500 deposit and if they failed to receive a certain percent of the vote they would forfeit their deposit.

At the present time the filing fee is only $50 and it is easy to get that much publicity. The deposit method of cutting down the candidates would overcome the objection voiced against raising the filing fee in that this might eliminate a possible serious candidate who couldn't raise the fee.

SIKES BABY 'DOING FINE' AFTER FALL; RETURNS HOME

Richard Wayne Sikes, 15-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Sikes, was brought home from St. Joseph's Hospital in Fort Worth Tuesday evening. The child, who was injured Monday when he fell from a chair in the family home, was rushed to Abilene Monday afternoon by Hamlin Funeral Home ambulance and was then flown by air ambulance to Fort Worth.

The child did not seem to be seriously hurt at first but then it became apparent that he had received a serious head injury. After being taken to Hamlin Memorial Hospital he was rushed to Abilene at 3:55 p.m. for the flight to Fort Worth. His father who is employed with Hamlin Oil Well Service Co. accompanied the boy.

The youngster's mother, the former Dorothy Crocker, went to the Fort Worth Hospital with a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Putnam, and her mother, Mrs. Lucille Bailey, Monday evening.

The family returned home about 8:00 p.m. Tuesday evening and the child is "doing fine."

DEPLETED ELLENBURGER WELL RECOMPLETED NW OF HAMLIN

A depleted Ellenburger well was plugged back and recompleted in a Canyon producer in the Purdue field 5½ miles northwest of Hamlin in Fisher County.

It is Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company's No. 10 Port H. Williams, section 200, block 1, H&TC survey.

Daily potential for the Canyon was 183.66 barrels of 41.5-gravity oil through a 20/64-inch choke and perforations at 4,453-65 feet. Gas-ratio was 296-1.

Keith Wells of Abilene set 4½-inch casing at 3,170 feet in No. 1 Bessie Scott, Southeast Fisher County wildcat. He will attempt completion as a Flippen line discovery.

Total depth is 3,700 feet. The section between 3,098-and 3,143 feet will be tested through perforations.

A one-hour drillstem test on that zone recovered 3,000 feet of gas, 230 feet of free oil and 270 feet of slightly mud-cut oil.

Flowing pressure was 175 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure in 30 minutes was 1,225 pounds.

The well is three miles southeast of Sylvester and 330 feet from south and west lines of subdivision 63, Bastrop County School Land survey No. 323. It is three miles south of the Sylvester (Goen) area.

Great Lakes Carbon Corporation, of Abilene, abandoned at 3,730 feet No. 3 A. C. Musil, J. M. Moss survey 3, eight miles southwest of Stamford in Jones County.

Candidates for City Council Unopposed In April 4 Election

With the deadline past for filing for the vacancies on the city council, the three candidates who announced last week will be unopposed.

Those seeking the three posts are George Campbell, C. L. Howard and Hollis Madden. Campbell and Howard will be up for re-election while Madden will be seeking his first term on the council. Joe Hudspeth's term expires April 4 and he did not seek re-election.

Deadline for filing for one of the seats was noon Saturday.

Although the candidates seeking the council posts are unopposed, the voting will likely be heavier than usual because of the Senate race to be voted on the same day. With the deadline past for seeking the U. S. Senate seat vacated by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, the ballot will list 71 candidates for the office.

In order to simplify the voting, the council has ordered two boxes to be set up in the city election-one at the City Hall and the other at the High School Gymnasium.

ASC PLANNING SURVEY OF ALL FARMS PRODUCING GRAIN

A survey of all farms in Jones County which produce Grain Sorghums or Corn will get under way in the next day or so, according to J. Noel Weaver, Chairman of the Jones County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The survey is being conducted throughout the "major feed grain producing area" (which includes Jones County) as an advanced step in connection with proposed feed grain programs now under discussion. The proposals would include adjusting the 1961 acreage of corn and grain sorghums.

To put such a program in to operation for 1961 crops in a manner which would be fair to all growers, accurate data must be obtained immediately for the possible establishment of feed grain base acreages for all farms in the major feed grain producing area. Such information will include the acreage history of corn and grain sorghums, as well as the acreage devoted to other crops and land uses, for all farms in the area which one or more of these feed grains were produced either in 1959 or 1960.

In other counties -- called the "minor" feed grain producing area, such data will be obtained for each feed grain producing farm for which a request is made by the owner or operator of the farm.

Mr. Weaver explained that because it will be necessary to obtain complete coverage of all corn and grain sorghum farms in the county, farmers are urged to report the information for their farm or farms at the ASC office at 12th St., Anson, not later than March 14, 1961.

PRE-EASTER SERIES--

PERIOD BEFORE EASTER MARKED WITH MANY EVENTS

Editor's note: This is the first in a series of pre-Easter articles released by the World Book Encyclopedia.

The Easter season actually opens weeks before the joyful Sunday that marks the resurrection.

On Ash Wednesday many Christians begin a time of fast and prayer called Lent. The term comes from the Old English word lætnen, meaning springtime, according to Mrs. Francine Klagsburn, religious editor of World Book Encyclopedia. Early Christians in Rome held a 40-hour fast and vigil in remembrance of Christ's rest in the grave. But the period was later extended to the 40-day Lent, probably as a reminder of the 40 days Christ fasted in the wilderness.

In anticipation of this solemn season, Christians in many parts of the world celebrate with carnivals. In New Orleans, for example, the season of carnival, or farewell to the flesh, lasts from about January 6 to Shrove Tuesday, which is Mardi Gras Day. The French named the holiday Mardi Gras, or fat Tuesday, after the custom of parading a fat ox through the streets of Paris on Shrove Tuesday.

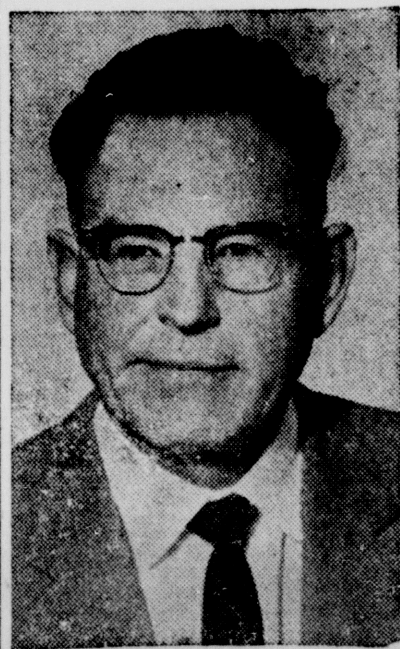

The day is also known as Pancake Day, and every year the women of Olney, England, and Liberal, Kansas, compete in a pancake race.

The next day is Ash Wednesday when the priest marks a cross on the forehead of the devout with ashes. Since Biblical times, sprinkling oneself with ashes has expressed sorrow.

The last week of Lent is Holy week. It begins with Palm Sunday, named for the palms that lined Christ's path as He made a triumphant entry into Jerusalem. The palms exhibited on this day are later burned and the ashes are used for Ash Wednesday of the following year.

Maundy Thursday commemorates the Last Supper and the time when Jesus washed the feet of his disciples as a token of brotherly love. At one time, the king or emperor of Austria, Russia, Portugal and Spain would wash the feet of 12 poor persons.

Good Friday is a day of mourning as the anniversary of Christ's death on the cross, while Holy Saturday is spent in anticipation. Then, at dawn, comes Easter Sunday and the happy celebration of the resurrection.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

Texas Press Association

ANSTIN, TEXAS—Hopes for early Legislation agreement on money-raising hit the dust when the House began to vote.

Future is dim for three of the four deficit-erasing measures recommended by Gov. Price Daniel.

First, to be derailed was a proposal to raise the gas production tax from 7 to 19 percent. Its sponsor, Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, asked that it not be voted out of committee. He expressed hope that the money could be gotten some other way.

Two others -- the abandoned property act and a bill to raise the franchise taxes on interstate corporations -- got overwhelming approval of the House Revenue and Taxation Committee but into a hornet's nest of opposition on the House floor. Both were opposed by 79-to-69 votes.

Vote on another revenue measure for utility companies was postponed after its sponsor claimed it had been "amended to death." This bill, by Rep. Max Carraker of Roby, would set a uniform utility tax rate of 1.997 per cent and eliminate exemptions for rural areas and REA co-ops.

Fourth of Governor Daniel's deficit-canceling measures (besides the gas tax, franchise tax and abandoned property act) is a proposal to take the $15,000,000 a year for farm-to-market road building from regular highway funds rather than the general revenue funds.

MAILMEN STAGGER--Supporters of legalized horse racing bargained for time as a roused church people flooded House members' desks with anti-racing letters.

Rep. V. E. Berry, sponsor, won by a narrow 79-to-70 vote a motion to postpone action on the racing measures until March 21. Opponents pressed for action to kill it now.

Some members reported their secretaries bagged down in answering "hundreds of letters" prompted by sermons and religious magazine articles against the proposal.

Berry's secretary is flooded with mail urging passage of Berry's resolution.

Actually the resolution (HJR-4) does not legalize horse-race betting. It calls only for a poll of public sentiment on the subject of whether or not the voters would like to vote officially on the matter at the next general election.

Then the topic would still be up for legislative debate.

Berry's argument is that the people have a right to express their opinions; and they can do so at the April 4 election at no cost to the state. DRIVER INSURANCE DEBATED--Everyone wants to promote safe driving. Disagreements come only on whether the present merit rating auto insurance plan is a fair and effective means of achieving that end.

In the background briefing for Austin newsmen, Sen. Grady Hazlewood, opponent of the present plan, declared, "I'd like to see a plan that would really promote safe driving... but one that law-abiding, decent people can live with."

Referring to the letters he had received, Hazlewood cited case after case in which people declared they had received insurance premium penalties for relatively harmless, minor violations or for incidents that were not their fault.

In the same briefing, former Sen. Johnny B. Rogers of Austin defended the plan as basically sound despite problems arising from uneven or unfair law enforcement. "During the past year, under the present plan, said Rogers, "Texas had the lowest number of highway deaths since 1949." Number of deaths in proportion to the number of miles traveled was the lowest in history.

Rogers said there was no objection to removing some of the more petty, inconsequential violations from the penalty point list.

MILK IMPORTS CAUSE HASSLE--Two segments of the milk industry are joined in battle over the conditions under which milk from other states may be brought into Texas.

Milk producers are pushing a bill which would require that the Texas Health Department certify that any milk shipped into Texas meet standards for milk produced in Texas. This will prevent importing of substandard milk, say the producers. Milk distributors oppose the measure, saying that it would make it impossible for them to buy from anyone but Texas producers. They say required inspection of out-of-state dairies would be impossible and impractical. Result, they

REPORT FROM AUSTIN...

By REP. LEON THURMAN

This week of the Legislature has about passed, and things have really been happening. On Wednesday, March 1, we failed to pass three tax bills. One was changing the franchise tax on corporations, one amending the escheat bill and one to tax utility companies. The first two of these were turned down in the House and the last one was amended considerably and will be voted on this date.

It seems that the Governor is trying to tax the corporations to such an extent to keep them from coming to Texas, and since our economy is based on industry, we do not feel that it is fair to tax a corporation out of existence. We feel that the escheat bill set a bad precedent, and if the Governor can take over bank accounts, he can take over real estate property. The next thing to this would be to lower the years in order to take over the property. The utility tax does not effect the large cities in any manner whatsoever. It only effects the rural areas for people living in town less than ten thousand. We cannot vote for any bill that taxes people of our district and does not tax the people living in Dallas, Tarrant, Bexar Counties, etc. We declare, would be a monopoly for Texas producers and higher prices to consumers.

Senate Public Health Committee approved the bill.

AERONAUTICS BOOST URGED--A bill to make more money available for aeronautics regulation won Senate State Affairs Committee approval.

Sens. Ray Roberts of McKinney and Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo are sponsors of the bill to provide for allocation of some $70,000 to $140,000 from taxes paid for airplane fuel.

Under the Roberts-Hazlewood plan, 35 per cent would go to the Aeronautics Commission for operations, 40 per cent to the Commission for airport and landing strip improvements and 25 per cent would go to the available school fund.

FIREMEN'S PENSIONS STUDIED--A plan to bolster the firemen's pension fund brought howls of protest from those asked to pick up the tab -- municipal government and fire insurance companies. It is under study in the House Revenue and Taxation Committee.

Rep. Franklin Spears of San Antonio is sponsor of the bill which would levy an extra 2.75 per cent tax on fire insurance premiums, with three-fourths of the money raised to go to the firemen's pension fund. Municipal governments also would be asked to up their allocations to the fund.

City officials said they didn't know where the money would come from. Insurance industry spokesman declared it would be unfair to charge all insurance buyers -- in the country as well as the city -- to pay for city firemen's pensions.

thing that a tax should be fair and should pay his share.

The "Red" Berry bill to legalize pari-mutuel betting was introduced to the Legislature on Tuesday and postponed until March 21. We voted against this postponement, because we felt it should be killed at that time. We cannot support any legislation that would legalize gambling and will use all of our ingenuity to fight legislation of this sort.

It seems that each week from hereon we will have two or three tax bills to vote on. As one tax bill dies, another one pops up, and we know money will have to be raised to operate the government, but we cannot sacrifice principles for some measure we think unfair, and if and when we vote for a tax bill, it will be one that in our judgment is fair and equal to each taxpayer.

Chrysler to Show New Highlander In Mid-March

Chrysler's new Highlander model with Mac Duff tartan interiors will be introduced in dealer's showrooms in mid-March.

C. E. Briggs, vice president of Chrysler Corporation and general manager of the Chrysler and Imperial Division, said the model, in the Newport series, went into production during the first week of March.

The car is available as a sedan or four-door hardtop, with silver, grey, black, white or red interior finishes.

The upholstery material is a wool blend MacDuff tartan in a combination of blue, green and red.

"It is the kind of interior design that found great favor with Chrysler owners in the years just preceding and following World War II," Briggs said. "The last previous Highlander was built in 1954. We are reviving it now because so many people have asked for it and also because we think it is exceptionally attractive in our 1961 Newport."

Your RIGHT TO VOTE

MR. AND MRS. VOTER, do you feel that you should have an opportunity to vote on legalizing Parimutuel Horse Race Betting?

A constitutional amendment (H.J.R. #4) is being considered whereby Texans will be given an opportunity to legalize horse race betting in Dallas, Tarrant, Harris, Galveston, Bexar, Midland, Hidalgo, Cameron and Webb Counties, subject to approval by LOCAL OPTION.

H.J.R. #4 provides for distribution, ANNUALLY, among all counties that do not have race tracks, one-half of the STATE TAX REVENUE obtained from horse racing. Each county would receive approximately $1.00 per capita population the first year. Counties where the tracks are located would receive 2% of parimutuel handle. The state's tax income from horse racing alone would run close to $12,000,000 the very first year—possibly more—besides all the income tourists would bring to Texas—which would amount to millions of dollars, plus a great ad valorem tax on race tracks, breeding farms and many valuable race horses.

Please express your opinion by checking ☒ the appropriate box below. You do not have to sign your name unless you like, but we would prefer it.

☐ YES: I feel that the people should have an opportunity to vote on horse race parimutuel betting.

☐ NO: I am not in favor of letting the people vote on the subject.

Methods Given On Control of Wild Rye Grass

Rescue grass (wild rye) cheat natural grass and other bromes in home lawns can be controlled with Endothal, according to County Agent, Kirby Clayton. Mix 6-7 tablespoons of Endothal per gallon of water and 1 teaspoon of liquid household detergent or 3 tablespoons of dry household detergent per gallon of Endothal-water mixture. For effective control, apply the material by spray or mop when the grass or weeds are small.

For most other broadleaf winter weeds, use 2.4-D or 2,4,5-T at the rate of 4 tablespoons per gallon of water and apply as a spray or mop. The addition of 1 tablespoon of soap detergent per gallon of water helps to stick the materials on the plant. Do not use 2,4-D or 2,4,5-T close to broadleaf flowers or shrubs as a spray.

A golden tipped fluffy meringue crowns this handsome pie filled with the taste surprise of flavorful California raisins. The elegant sour cream filling is also accented with chopped walnuts and fragrant spices. Cook the filling over low heat or hot water and stir constantly so it comes out satiny smooth.

1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon cloves
2 eggs, separated
1 cup sour cream
1 cup dark or golden raisins
1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1 baked 9-inch pastry shell
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar

Combine 3/4 cup sugar, cornstarch, salt and spices. Blend in egg yolks. Add sour cream, raisins and lemon juice. Cook over hot water until thick stirring constantly. Cool. Add walnuts and pour into baked pastry shell. Top with meringue. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 15 to 18 minutes until delicately browned. PLANS TAKING SHAPE FOR SEED PLANTER BOX SURVEY

Plans are shaping up for the Seed Planter Box Survey which is to be conducted in Jones County in April, according to County Agent, Kirby Clayton, who is chairman of the campaign. Working in conjunction with the vocational agriculture departments in Hamlin, Stamford, and Anson and the Young Farmers Organization, the group will contact 10% or more of the Jones County Farmers to find out what kind of seed farmers are planting.

Fields Should Be Checked Now for Weed Control

Now is the time to check your fields and decide if your wheat needs spraying to control winter weeds. A few weeks now will look like a lot in April or May points out County Agent, Kirby Clayton.

Studies in 1958 for the control of these weeds at the Field Station showed 2.4-D to be most effective when weeds are sprayed around March 1 to March 15th. By April 15th, the 1958 studies showed the weeds had used over 2.5 inches of water from the soil. This will reduce wheat yields if soil moisture becomes a limiting factor, the county agent said.

A 1/2 to 3/4 pound of 2.4-D per acre will give weed control. The ester of acid formulations of 2.4-D are usually more effective for controlling these weeds than the amine formulations. Farmers are cautioned to be careful when using 2.4-D on wheat adjacent to other susceptible crops, flowers or trees, since it has been known to drift for several miles and still cause damage.

For further information on the use of 2.4-D on wheat contact your local county agent.

motors are being built). The motors are built with a rod, an armature, an electromagnet, and run on a 6-volt battery. The motor that runs the longest length of time, the fastest, and the smoothest will win and its builders will get the best grades.

All four members of the senior class plan to take college entrance examinations on April 22. They will go to a testing center for these tests. This will be the first year Old Glory seniors have participated in this program.

By MRS. CLYDE PRITCHARD

Mrs. Bill Pritchard honored her daughter, Cathy Ann, Saturday with a birthday party at the Community Center.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the crepe paper wall decorations. Two lovely pink potted hyacinths were also used.

The table was covered with a lace cloth over pink and a pink little girl doll stood on one end of it.

Pink and white birthday cake with six white candles on it, vanilla ice cream and party-pac, was served to a number of guests.

Several games were enjoyed by the children and following this, the gifts were opened and displayed.

Cathy's daddy, Bill Pritchard, made home made movies of it all.

Curtis Ross has returned home from the hospital after several days stay because of a carbuncle and of his diabetes getting out of control.

Linda, the 10 month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phelps was carried to the hospital Monday with pneumonia and asthma, but is much better now.

CHILDREN WARNED AGAINST FLYING KITES NEAR WIRES

Local children were cautioned today against flying kites near electric wires by B. M. Brundage, local manager for the West Texas Utilities Company.

He suggested an open field, away from electric wires and busy streets, as the ideal place for kite flying. "It's dangerous to fly kites in the streets or anywhere near poles and wires, partly because of traffic hazards and partly because kites may come in contact with electric lines," the WTU manager said. Serious trouble may result if the kite becomes entangled in electric wires.

"If a kite gets caught in electric wires, a child may receive an electrical shock, or at best may lose his kite," Brundage warned. He emphasized, however, that kite-flying can be completely safe if a few simple rules are followed.

The WTU manager made his pleas for safety as warm temperatures and steady breezes signalled the beginning of the spring kite-flying season.

He also suggested kite-flying enthusiasts use only dry string. Wet string, wire or twine with metal in it are good conductors of electricity and increase the danger of electric shock, either from electric wires or from atmospheric conditions. Metal shouldn't be used in the construction of kites either.

Brundage warned model builders against flying planes near electric wires. "The model builder could receive a serious shock if the control wire touches an electric line," he said.

"If a kite does become caught in the wires, don't try to get it down. Either leave it alone, or call the WTU office for assistance," he suggested.

In discussing electrical safety, the power company spokesman also urged parents to use care when they are moving outside television or radio antennas without expert help. He pointed out that WTU service men would be glad to advise the concerning high voltage lines near their homes.

CONDITIONS RIGHT FOR USUAL SPRING ANIMAL RABIES UPSURGE

State Health Department officials say conditions are now right for the usual spring upsurge in animal rabies.

Since January 1, 56 animals have been diagnosed by laboratory methods as being rabid. Included in that number were 28 skunks, 18 dogs, three cats, three foxes, three cats, and one horse. And that's just an unknown fraction of the actual problem.

The number of confirmed cases is considerably under the number registered at this time last year when 66 cases were diagnosed in January alone, but it is still high enough to pose a serious threat to affected areas, Dr. H. E. Smith said.

Smith, head of the department's preventive medical service section, said pockets of infection exist in Central Texas counties along the Brazos River, but no area of the state can consider itself immune. He blamed abundant susceptible wildlife for Texas preannal rabies woes.

Health authorities have no way of knowing the actual extent of the disease among foxes and skunks because only those which come into contact with humans come to their attention.

"For every rabid fox or skunk we hear about, there might be 50 or 75 or more we don't hear about because they die in the burrows or dens," Dr. Smith said.

The obvious danger of wildlife rabies, aside from the possibility of direct exposure to hunters, and campers and other sportsmen, is that wild life might easily infect dogs. Dogs thus could become sources of human contact with the disease.

"Large increases in rabid wildlife will inevitably spill over into domestic animals—livestock and pets," Smith affirmed.

Although humans are more often exposed to rabies by dog bites than any other way, the disease in dogs seems generally to be on the decline. But Smith said this condition could easily change if the public lets up on vaccination of their pets.

Texas hasn't experienced a human deaths from rabies since 1857. However, the State Health Department last year distributed 1,723 four-teen-day courses of anti-rabies vaccine for human use as an indication of the extent of human involvement.

We hear frequent reference to "modern advertising" when problems of trade are discussed.

Yet, advertising is anything but modern. Advertising is as old as commerce -- as old as civilization. Some of the recovered records of the ancient Phoenicians, the first great merchants of the world, are advertisements.

In ancient Roman cities, the central bulletin board, the newspaper of two thousand years ago, was largely for advertising. The advertisements, posted on Roman bulletin boards did not differ greatly from those which appear in newspapers of today.

The colonial newspaper in America came into existence primarily to provide information on goods available from newly arrived ships. The new goods provided by the industrial revolution were sold by an increase in advertising--advertising which financed the beginning of a free and independent press in the United States.

By 1865 slogans connected with "modern" advertising were common. Some of these were: "Advertising is a blister that draws trade." Or "Ceasing advertising in dull times is like tearing out a dam because the water is low." Or, according to Horace Greeley, to do without advertising was "to close one's eyes to the light and insist upon living in perpetual darkness."

Thus the major change in advertising over the centuries has been in quantity; a great deal more is needed today because of increased variety in goods and services, and because of the rapid change in the consumer situation in every community.

Every continent, except Europe, has extensive deserts.

Having trouble with winter weeds in your lawn? They can be controlled with chemicals, says George McBee, extension pasture specialist. He suggests that you visit your local county extension agents and pick up a copy of L-425, "Chemical Weed Control in Lawns." It's chock-full of helpful hints on lawn care.

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

Omar Burleson, M. C. 17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C. — THE CONGRESS MAKES APPROPRIATION in a lump sum for basic research. The Executive Department of Government selects and determines the projects and the foundation or university to carry out the experiments to develop the scientific facts sought.

NOT LONG AGO AERPORT revealed that the National Science Foundation had granted $50,000 to Cornell University to study the language of birds.

FIRST REACTION TO SUCH AN EXPENDITURE suggested that here was really "something for the birds." However, investigation revealed a surprising bit of information.

THE UNITED STATES DEVELOPED underwater listening devices during the war to track and destroy enemy submarines. Those of us who served in the Navy will remember the terms "up-doppler" and "down-doppler." These terms simply mean the tone or frequency of sound. We were often puzzled by sounds that seemed to be a submarine but nothing happened when death charges were dropped. Many times our Navy was depth charging a whale or some other large fish.

THESE MISTAKES ARE STILL MADE. Even recently there was a submarine reported at a certain place off our East Coast but it turned out to be something else. However, research and experimental tests of large fish and sea animals give off sounds very similar to a submarine, identifying the difference is now fairly certain. We now know better than to continue an expensive operation in tracking and bombing the animals of the sea.

SCIENTIFIC INVESTIGATIONS ALSO PROVE that bats are equipped with a built-in systems which enables them to detect and elude objects in the air and in dark spaces. From this study comes much information which has been applied in the development of radar.

A CERTAIN TYPE OF VULTURE called the Condor, was found to be equipped with his own oxygen mask. He flies high over the Andes Mountains. As he reaches great heights his mask, carried folded over his head at lower altitudes, unfolds to provide a function for his safety.

OUR SCIENTIST HAS GOTTEN some helpful information from him, beneficial to our jet age flying.

FURTHER STUDIES OF THIS KIND OF NATURE have given scientists, doctors and technical people an understanding of many things helpful to the human race.

ANIMAL AND BIRD SOUNDS HAVE BEEN put to use teaching children born without normal power of speech to communicate with other people.

SO - - - $50,000 FOR THE STUDY OF BIRDS SOUNDS is probably all right. Things are not just always as they first appear.

Methodist Plan Spring Lectures

WALT DISNEY'S 'SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON' COMING SUNDAY

Once again Walt Disney has filmed a beloved childhood classic this time Johann Wyss' 150-year-old adventure tale and given it a splendidly scenic deserted island setting, superbly photographed in Technicolor and Panavision on tropical Tobago Island and filled the action with heart-warming and humorous domestic touches, suspense and swashbuckling battles between pirates and a brave family group.

Opening four-day run Sunday at the Rogge Theater. There's also a dash of youthful romance which might seem too juvenile to today's teenagers. But, for the youngsters and the mature moviegoers who thrilled to the book in their youth, this is wholesome entertainment of the sort rarely found on the screen today.

Dorothy McGuire and the British John Mills top a fine cast which includes the personable James MacArthur and pert Janet Munro, Tommy Kirk of "Shaggy Dog" fame and ten-year-old Kevin Corcoran, featured in "Pollyanna" and "Toby Tyler," all of them natural and appealing Disney regulars.

Add Sessue Hayakawa as a fierce-looking pirate and exhibitors have a goodly quota of exploitable names. Well directed by Ken Annakin, who highlights the thrills of the shipwreck and the climactic pirate storming of the Robinson's makeshift fort. Well produced by Bill Anderson.
